

UNL COLLEGE OF LAW

The new addition to the Nebraska College of Law provides easy access for clients seeking legal assistance and stresses the importance of skills training and experiential learning.

The 16,000 square-foot addition to the home of Nebraska Law is adjacent to the building’s main entrance. The space is for use by all of Nebraska Law’s legal clinics – the Civil Clinic, Criminal Clinic, Immigration Clinic and Weibling Entrepreneurship Clinic – which gives students hands-on experience serving real-world clients.

The new space features a reception area, private interview rooms to consult with clients, conference rooms and a mock courtroom. A classroom and faculty offices allow the four clinic directors to coordinate teaching. Desk space in a large open area accommodates up to 40 students, so they can trade ideas and consult on strategy without waiving attorney-client privilege.
