

YORK GENERAL DIALYSIS CENTER

After several months of planning and construction, York General's Dialysis Unit construction is complete. The completed York General Dialysis Center includes space for serving an average of 23 patients a day. The previous building was originally built in 2004. It was design to handle a daily average of 17. The updates feature a spacious lobby plus an isolation room to handle special infection control needs.

INDUSTRY: Healthcare

SERVICE: New Construction

COMPLETION DATE: September 2019

LETS BUILD TOGETHER

CONTACT US

